THE all-gone feeling which people sometimes speak of, is caused by want of proper action of the liver and heart. These may be assisted, and the bowels regulated, by Parsons' Purgative Pills in small doses.

CORN and flour are staple articles: but not more so than Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, where known. It is good for children or adults, for any internal soreness of the chest or bowels, and the best Liniment prepared, under whatever name.

ROOMS REP. DISTRICT COMMITTEE,
Wilmington, N. C., May 9.

The District Convention to nominate a Republican candidate for Congress will meet at Fayetteville, N. C., on the 19th instant. Each county will be entitled to as many delegates in the Convention as they have in the lower House of the Legislature.

THE MILTON CHRONICLE gives us some advice relative to the "cut" of Dr. Ballou, which that medical expert (?) left in our possession, as a collateral for several unpaid printing bills, we suppose, or perhaps as a souvenir, to remind us that we have been cut, to the amount of our little reckoning.

The Milton Chronicle advises us to send it (the cut) to the Penitentiary, and it may afford our friend of the quill some satisfaction to know that we have applied to have the "cut" admitted within the classic walls of that Institution, but they replied that there his face is not good, never questioning but that his cheek may be prominent, if we were to send his body; perhaps it might not be objectionable to them, but as they are not over-anxious to inaugurate a rogue's gallery, they will not accept the "cut." We have the satisfaction, however, of having inaugurated a gallery of our own, headed by the Doctor's "cut." It is interesting to notice how the flies in our sanctum make for that "cut," and rest their tired pinions upon the honest features of the "Doctor."

Our friend of the quill will no doubt admire our manner of utilizing a fraud, and when the summer is upon us, and all are troubled and suffering from the ferocity of the myriads of the mosquito tribe, we can sit in rest and quiet, and reflect how we are CUT out of so much misery by the mosquitoes following the examples of the flies.

"Then all will believe with us," as the Poet says:

There is nothing ill that on this earth doth live,
But to the earth some special good doth give.

Good bye, Doctor, good bye!

OUR churches were all well filled on yesterday.

THE Rev. Mr. Parkinson preached at the head of the market yesterday (Sunday) afternoon.

YESTERDAY, Sunday the 10th, was memorial day, but the exercises are taking place to-day.

THE steeple of St. Mark's (colored) Episcopal Church is completed, and it is simply beautiful.

A NEW Uniform Lodge of K. of P, in this city, is now the talk. It will be organized with about 40 or 50 members.

Rev. W. J. Parkinson organized his Sabbath School yesterday. Thirty-three teachers and scholars were present to begin the enterprise.

THIRTY-SIX.—Our police force now number thirty-six, but we want just about- well, we'll say that many more. and then we'll all feel satisffied.

TWO.—We understand that there are to be two places for general delivery in our new Postoffice, one for the ladies, and one for gentlemen. Won't that be nice.

K. OF P.—The members of the new Uniform Lodge, K. of P., are requested to meet at the Lodge room to-night, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of perfecting an organization.

PIC NIC.—A pic nic will be given at Rockingham on Thursday, and we hear that many of our young people will be there. It promises to be the grandest pic nic of the season.

SWORN IN.—The new administration had the oath of office administered to them to-day, and now they demand the seal of the city. Shall they have it or not, is the question?

L. SOLOMON, on Second, between Market and Dock streets, will have the best beef next Wednesday morning that has been offered for sale in this market for several months. It BUMA LISH!—We don't want to join the militia—we are going to join the fire company, or else get up a volunter company, take our devil for a standard bearer, and a copy of the POST for a standard. Won't you enlist?

ROBBED.—Some scoundrel or scoundrels entered Front Street Methodist Episcopal Church, one night last week, and carried off several chairs out of the pulpit. The charred remains of several baskets were found, and the supposition is that they attempted to set fire to the edifice. We hope that they will be caught and hung as high as Haman.

MISS RHODA.—That young typo has called in our sanctum and says that "Miss Rhoda Lowery," or Mrs. Chavis, passed down on the Carolina Central Railway one day last week, from Red Banks to Abbottsburg. He did not interview her relative to his proposed lecturing tour, as he has decided to make a tour with somebody else. We return thanks for an invitation.

DEATH OF A PROMINENT CITIZEN OF BEAUFORT COUNTY.—Jas. R. Grist, a leading citizen of Washington, Beaufort county, died a few days since at his residence, in Washington. Mr. Grist was, before the war, a resident of this city, and is remembered by a large number of our citizens.

A generous, noble, high-minded man, possessing great popularity with all classes of people, his loss is deeply felt.

A WEEPING TREE.—There is a mulbery tree on the premises of a colored woman, living on Sixth street between Mulberry and Chestnut streets in this city, that has been attracting considerable attention from passers-by, from the fact that although the sun was shining bright, and no cloud to be seen in the blue heavens, yet there was a constant dropping of small particles of water from the leaves of this tree, in all respect resembling rain, which is quite visible when the tree is between the observer and the sun. We call the attention of the curious to this weeping tree, and ask for a solution of the mystery.

Mayor's Court,

His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor, presiding.

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Henry Nelson, for disorderly conduct on the streets. Fined $5 and costs or 10 days on the streets.

Two persons, charged with disorderly conduct, were dismissed on payment of costs.

Robert Hill, disorderly conduct; case continued over.

James Conlin, disorderly conduct and drunkenness, fined $10 and costs, or 15 days on the streets.

John Nixon, drunkenness, fined $5 and costs, or 10 days on the streets.

W. A. Adams, drunkeness and fighting, fined $20 and costs for 30 days on the streets.

Four of the above named individuals not having the wherewithal to purchase their freedom, and go on their way rejoicing, had their names enrolled upon the "chain gang list," and were set to work improving the streets. At this rate, four links every day, that chain gang will soon be long enough to survey and build the road to the Sound.

THAT DOG FIGHT.—Anything we desire, all we have to do is to ask for it—says our devil. We asked for a dog fight to be gotten up for our benefit, and it has been done; yes, it took place Saturday afternoon, on Sixth street, and a bloody fight it was too—but eye-witnesses say that our devil's dog completely whipped, bit and scratched Neill's dog into a "cocked hat." We understand, we were not there, and we simply narrate the facts as they were told to us by eye-witnesses, and our special reporter, who says that Neill is going to have some good sausages for sale to-morrow morning.

DANGEROUS PRACTICE.—That of horse racing on our streets, as is the case almost every day in the week, and Sundays for a variety. Several persons were indulging in this pastime yesterday (Sunday) afternoon, near Ninth and Chestnut streets, and as they approached the corner, one of the horsemen, suddenly wheeling his horse, came near running over several small children, who were sitting upon the grass quietly enjoying themselves.—Surely such recklessness, upon our thoroughfares, should not be allowed. Gentlemen, please apply the remedy.

AT IT AGAIN.—The grocery shop of Mr. W. H. Duguid, on McRae, between Mulberry and Walnut streets, was entered by a colored man on Saturday night last, about 8:30 o'clock, and approaching Mr. Duguid, who was behind the counter, began asking the price of several articles, when he called for goods amounting to $5. After getting them tied up securely, he again called for other goods to the amount of $1 50, making a bill of $6 50 in all. By this time he had managed to approach near the door, and handing one of the bundles to a confederate, who stood outside, he seized the other package and away they went, closely followed by Mr. Duguid for about the distance of one block, but they soon distanced him, and he was compelled to return to his shop, there to become a wiser man.

It is a great pity this class of "light fingered" gentry, who have settled upon this novel way of getting a living at the expense of the unsuspecting merchant, could not be captured and made to suffer.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, May 11.

A Little Rock special, dated last evening, contains the following:

Two negroes were killed by Baxter's pickets near the Fair Grounds yesterday morning. In the afternoon several skirmishers advanced up the street and joined Baxter's pickets, when the officer in command ordered all citizens to their homes and the soldiers to their quarters. The regulars kept close at their barricades. A fight was expected at any time during the afternoon or evening.

There are two companies of regulars at the City Hall, one at the U. S. Court building, and artillery with horses harnessed on a side street.

The regulars have four barricades in the city, and one on the opposite side of the river.

Orders were issued by all parties yesterday afternoon for the soldiers to go to their quarters and the citizens to keep in their houses.

In the evening, Col. White, of Baxter's force, rode to the outskirts of the city, and the regulars followed shortly after.

TENNESSEE.

MEMPHIS, May 11.

The steamer Cheek, from below, brings important news regarding the overflow of the Mississippi.

At 9 o'clock yesterday morning, the levee in front of Friar's Point, on the Mississippi, broke at Magnard & Miller's. The former crevasse is one hundred yards wide, and the latter fifty, and as the water outsidee of the levee was fully five feet above the level inside the water poured through in an immense volume, defying all attempts to check it, and soon inundated the town and surrounding country. The crevasses will inundate a very large and rich section of cotton lands.

St. Francis river was stationary yesterday, and the levee on the Helena or Arkansas side still held good. About two thousand hands are engaged in strengthening it, but the river had made a cut off yesterday at Council Bend, cutting off some fourteen miles, and in consequence the river is rising below the cut off at the rate of one inch per hour. Further news from Helena is anxiously looked for.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, May 11.

The Fifth Quentennial convocation of the Sisters of Charity of North America was inaugurated yesterday in Frederick county, Maryland. About 350 Sisters, comprising Superioresses of asylums, hopitals and other institutions at San Francisco, Boston, Buffalo, New Orleans, and other cities, and representing, with few exceptions, every American diocese, were present at the inaugural ceremonies. Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Father Guedsey, Superior of the community in the United States. The convocation will continue until Tuesday May 19th.

The Fayetteville Statesman says of a Democratic ex-officeholder: We have been shown a copy of a writ of summons, signed by A. McPherson, Jr., Clerk, issued against a bondsman of Mr. E. P. Powers, in the suit of the town of Fayetteville vs. E. P. Powers, et al. It calls the defendants to answer a complaint in which the town of Fayetteville has laid its damages at the sum of ten thousand dollars. The bondsman says this suit is brought on account of a deficiency in the settlement of Mr. Powers' list as tax collector of the town, when it was under Democratic rule.

Chinning Over Drinks.

Lawrance Hanley, a remarkably frank young man, was yesterday explaining to a jury in the General Sessions how Henry Lentz, a bar-keeper, happened to shoot him in the breast. Hanley on the night of April 25 met four acquaintances in the bar-room attended by Lentz, at Laight and Greenwhich streets, and called for a round of drinks. He had a dollar but didn't like to break it, and asked Lentz to hang the drinks up. Lentz replied that his supply of hooks for hanging drinks was exhausted. A slight dispute on this point was followed by the discussion of a difference of opinion as to the name of one of the drinkers. "It's Riley," said the bar-keeper. "No it ain't," answered Hanley. "You are a liar." returned the bar-keeper. "Your are a —— liar," presisted Hanley. Thereupon the bar-keeper ordered the party out of his place, and Hanley retorted, telling him to go to ——

Lentz's Dutch was up by this time, and without further parley he snatched a seven-shooter from behind the bar and blazed a way at Hanley. The ball glanced and inflicted but a trifling flesh wound. "What did you do then?" asked Mr. Kintzing, prisoner's counsel. "I told him to shoot again, d— him," answered the complainant. "And why did you tell him that?" Hanley paused, and shook his head, seemingly to imply that the question was superfluous. "Answer me," continued the counsel; "why did you tell him to shoot you again?" "Well," said Hanley, "I just thought he might as well make a finish of me seeing he'd begun."

Lentz will spend a year in the Penitentiary.—N. Y. Sun.

Correspondence solicited from our friends in all parts of the State, on topics of general interest. Political news and reports of crops are especially desirable.

Memorial Day.

The tears of bereaved friends to-day fall upon the graves of the soldiers of the Confederacy. With the waking powers of this delightful season, the sod which covers their resting place is clad in the loveliest verdure; but in all hearts in which heroism, valor and constancy are appreciated, their memory is green. It is eminently proper that on this day the asperities of the hour be put out of sight, and that all in this pleasant land of ours yield themselves to the sentiments, tender and true, which the occasion suggests.

The occupants of the graves visited to-day were our countrymen, our comrades, our friends, and our brothers. By the ties of association and kindred they are dear to us. These ordinary connections are strengthened into a quadruple cable of love by the manner of their death. High deeds of daring, patient endurance of unrecompensed toil, suffering privations sealed with their life blood, is the measure of their praise.—All that endears the dead to the living stands between them and us.

The Inundations.

S. Johnson, a planter from Chicot county, Ark., who arrived at Memphis on the morning of the 7th, brings distressing accounts of the suffering among the laborers und their families in that vicinity, many of whom, he says, have subsisted for several days upon carcasses of cattle that had died of starvation or been drowned in the overflow. The citizens complain of the action of the New Orleans Relief Committee in not sending supplies outside the State of Louisiana, but this arises doubtless from the scarcity of the supplies and the great amount of destitution nearer New Orleans. The Relief Committee have actively engaged in collecting supplies to relieve the immediate wants of these people. Further trouble is apprehended from the rise in the St. Francis River.

The Governor of Louisiana and the Relief Committee of New Orleans re-receive letters daily from the overflowed parishes, giving details of the condition of the inhabitants. Recent letters from Catahoula, Caldwell, Concordia, Franklin, Ouachita, Rapides and Tensas parishes show no improvement, but indicate additional affliction by sickness. From the great mass of correspondence the following is selected as showing substantially the purport of the whole: Mr. Redditt, writing from Cuba Ouachita parish, says: "The country for miles around is submerged, and twelve farms are almost entirely under water within three miles of this place, with a population of 700 persons, from the breaking of the Cuba levee. The levee broke on April 8, and the current of water was so strong that it washed away everything on my lot except my dwelling house and store house. My corn, horses and oxen are all gone. The water in my dwelling is four feet deep, and rushes through in such a current as to make it tremble like a leaf; but look not to me alone. There are 600 or 700 others similarly situated within three miles."

W. J. Ellis has lost everything.—The water on the floor of his dwelling is five feet deep, and he has not enough provisions on hand for himself and fifteen freedmen, and no chance of getting any in the neighborhood.

Dr. R. C. Burch, writing from Boscobel Plantation, Ouachita parish, says there are 3,000 people within the limits of his practice, many of whom are suffering from sickness caused by exposure on account of the overflow. He is unable to supply the demand for medicines, and asks that medicine be forwarded, offering to distribute it to the sick and suffering.

Shelby's Expedition to Mexico, an Unwritten Leaf of the War, by Joan N. Edwards, is the title of a rhapsodical rambling narrative of the adventures of a handful of ex-Confederate soldiers, who, passing over the Rio Grade after the surrenders of Lee and Smith, offered their arms and services to aid Maximilian in his ill-starred enterprise in Mexico. The survivors of that expedition, if they have a particle of sense or sensibility, will feel anything but grateful to the author for his silly accounts of their silly adventures with Mexican women, and savage duels over them with their natural defenders, the effete, semi-civilized desperadoes of Mexico. The subject could not have been more successfully burlesqued by the bitterest foe of the Southern rebs.—N. Y. Sun.

For the Post.

A. A. McKoy.

We see that this gentleman has been nominated for the office of Judge of this District, and as the office is one in which every person in the State is interested, it is but natural that the people should inquire about him.

As the public journals of the day are the instructors of the people, we have adopted this method of obtaining the necessary information. We hear that he was one of the red hot "secesh" described by Gov. Vance, so hot that if plunged into cold water he would continue to siz and bubble for some time. We are also informed that he was one of those who hated the government so much that he would not live under it, but would migrate to South America; but as that was impracticable he removed from the United States into the Invisible Empire. If so, is he fit to administer the laws of North Carolina, or to associate with the gentlemen and citizens of the State? The highest officer in the State, and one of the highest intellectually and socially, said a few days ago "that he was unwilling, knowingly, to be associated in any way with a notorious kuklux." If so, when and in what court has he filed his oath of intention bona fide to become a citizen of the United States, and to renounce forever all alleglance and fidelity to any sovereignty whatever, and particularly to the said Empire? And in case he has borne any hereditary title therein, or been of any of the orders of nobility in said kingdom, has he made an express renunciation of the same, and has it been entered on the record? If, then, he has been naturalized according to the forms prescribed, is it legal, as the United States were at war with the Empire at the time of his application, and under the proviso of the act of 1802 could not have been naturalized?

The Journal of your city, in giving his biography, stated that he was now about forty-five years of age. If so, he was subject to conscription in 1861–4, and as nothing is said of his war record the people will doubtless be curious to know what kept him at home. Was he bomb-proofed by a militia office, or the twenty negro law?

When you shall have answered the above simple and unimportant interrogatories, or caused others to do so, we have a few more to submit prior to the election.

A VOTER.

4th Judicial District, May 11, 1874.

For the Post.

MR. POST:—The very devil has been played among the Democrats by the nomination of the Hon. A. M. Waddell. The old hunkers of the party swear by the Eternal that they will never surrender their liberties to King Caucus in any such way—that they have been cheated—and no such infamous trick will be endorsed by them. They would have preferred "this man" and they would have taken "that one"—indeed, almost "any other" man would have done as well. They say another grave and serious objection to the Colonel is the great pleasure which his nomination has given the Republicans! They are extremely jealous and suspicious of him on that score. What can done to reconcile them? is the question. Nothing less than the explosion of some big gun of the party will settle and hive these discordant elements. The cohesive attraction of public plunder will fail to attract and influence these old Hickory Democrats; money can't seduce; threats cannot awe them into an acquiescence of injustice and wrong! They have men true, able and faithful, who have grown gray in their service and now was the time to reward them for the long and continued sacrifices which they have made for the party, and no compromise will do—because, they say, any compromise is a sacrifice of principle, and therefore they will not support Waddell. Respectfully,

VOX.

The Good Heart of Matt. Carpenter.

One day during the special session of 1871—a sweltering day in June—Carpenter had made a speech on the Alabama treaty, and had come home to his obscure lodgings on the corner of F and Thirteenth, tired, mad, and out of breath. Fahrenheit marked 100° in the shade. The air was still and shimmered over the hot brick pavements as an oven. It was not a day for good nature. Matt. climbed up the ricketty stairway that leads to his rooms, stripped off coat, vest, collar and boots, and laid down on a lounge to smoke a cigar and incidentally to go to sleep.

"Cling! clang! cling!" went his little bell.

"Damme," says Matt, spitefully, "can't they give a fellow a minute's peace? Come in; come in!"

The visitor was a fine, decent ould Irish woman, between fifty or sixty, or thereabouts. She looked tired and worn. She had walked into town from somewhere up in Maryland about twenty miles.

"And is this Sinator Cairpinter, Lord bless him!" she inquired.

"Yes, madam, can I do anything for you?" responded the "Sinator," not in the blandest tones.

"Maybe ye might," said the woman. "You see, Sinator, I am a poor Irish woman. Me husband got sick in the war, and he niver has been able to do much sinde, and I've had a hard time of it to get along, wid all the doctor's bills to pay, and—"

"Well, well, what has all this story got to do with me. Here is a dollar—"

"Ah, Sinator, ochone, it isn't begging I am, and I wouldn't handle or touch o' yer money—it's only chance to work like a dacent woman I want, and they towld me that Sinator Carpenter wuz a good hearted man, and if I went and towld him me story he wud help me to get a place in the Treasury Department."

"Treasury Department!" broke in the astonished Senator, "what the —— can you do in the Treasury Department?" and he began to imagine either that woman was crazy or that some heartless, practical joker had sent her to him.

"What can I do in the Treasury department, is id? What can I do in the Treasury Department, scrub floors; what else!"

"Scrub!" said Matt; "Well here is richness! An old Irish woman seeking senatorial influence to get a job of scrubbing! Just you wait till I pull on my boots and put on my hat, my good woman, anp I'll see what can be done for you."

And in about five minutes the Wisconsin orator, in his shirt sleeves, was on his way to the exchequer with his protege. The Senatorial influence was potent, and if you call at the Treasury Department and inquire for the woman who holds her position at the request of Matt. Carpenter, they will show you a fine, dacent owld Irish woman, with gray hair and wrinkled face, who mops the floors and scrubs the stairways, and she is Matt's "lady friend" there.

The second battle of the Arkansas war has been fought. Col. Brooker's command, which went up on a train on the north side of the river, on the 8th, got off at Palarm, eighteen miles from Little Rock, marched down to the bank of the Arkansas river, and formed in line of battle on the side of a hill screened by bushes. About 9 o'clock the steamer Hattie hove in sight, when Capt. Groves went down to the bank and called out several times to stop the boat, but she steamed on faster and blew a distress whistle. Captain Sam Houston, in command of the boat applied offensive epithets to Captain Groves, and a shot was fired at him, but he got behind a tree. Another Baxter man then rushed out from the cabin of the boat behind barricades. The Brooks men returned the fire, and a fusilade was kept up for half an hour. The boat had been carried by the current over toward Brook's men; but, during the fight got into another current, and drifted to the opposite bank, the firing all the while being very brisk. A hole was shot through the steam-pipe, and the boat, drifting with the current, reached the shore. The Baxter men, about thirty in uumber, rushed up the bank and fled into the woods in all directions. A white flag was then hoisted by the mate of the boat, and the firing ceased. He asked Col. Brooker to send aid to the wounded, and skiffs, containing eight men each, were sent on board. The hole in the steam-pipe was plugged, and twenty-gve men, under an officer, were put on board the boat to take her back to Little Rock.

A Story of the Overflow.

The little town of Pearlington on Pearl river is pretty well overflowed. A branch of the Poltevent mills is situated there, and consequently the place is well peopled with negro laborers.

Old "Uncle Billy," a venerable old darkev with side whiskers, has a cabin built near the river bank, and was among the first inundated. He was accosted on the streets the next morning after the rise by a gentleman with:

"Well, Uncle Billy, I hear you were pretty well drowned out last nigh. How is it?"

"Well, you see, Massa John de ribber 'gin to my doo 'bout 8'oclock. I nebber knowd my old cabin was dat full of leaks 'fore, an de way dat ribber did rise on me was wusser den de dead sea rise on old Faro. I 'clare fore Moses. Massa John, I bleves dat ribber water was greased, fur it crawled troo dem cracks slipperer dan a possum tail.

"I didnt say noffin till the ole cabin got kivered wid de overflow and den I begin to bail out. I bailed her and bailed her till de 'mill bell struck 12 of de clock, an den I gined her up, an tot ed my ole chist to de tudder side of de cabin an put it up top of de bed, an den I got up on top of de chist and den I tried to sleep, but de catfiish was too owdacious; the kept sich a jumpin up all round de bed dat it was unpossible to sleep, an I jist lay dar an prayed for de daylight an my fishin pole. An when I see de fust streak ob de broke of day a glibberin troo de chinks, I reached up to de rafters an took down my fishen pole; den I cnts off a big piece of fat off'n de bacon side, Massa John, dat was hangin up dar, an I jist set on my ole chist an caught dem sassy cats till sunrise.".

A man in Maine has discovered the advantage of a large family. He has twenty-two children, and recently, when he made arrangements for moving from one scool district to another, thus transferring his school tax, his old neighbors offered to pay him something to remain among them. His new neighbors, however. offered to remove him free of expense, and so prevailed.

Tobacco plants in the Durham section are scarce, many having been destroyed by flies.

Winston voted for prohibition by a majority of 78.

MARSHAL'S OFFICE,

WILMINGTON, N, C., April 22, 1874.

NOTICE.

I WOULD MOST RESPECTFULLY CALL the attention of the citizens to the fact that the warm and sickly season is near at hand, and it becomes my duty to adopt the most stringent sanitary measures at this particular time to preserve the health of the city and prevent the introduction of disease that may originate from foul and unwholesome matter, filth, garbage, trash and refuse matter which has a tendency to create unwholesome and offensive odors. In order to prevent as far as possible the spread of those diseases peculiarly incident to this season of the year I would most respectfully solicit the co-operation of the citizens generally in placing our city in such a sanitary condition as to render it as far as practicable impregnable, at least to those diseases which originate from foul and unwholesome matter. To this end the entire force of the city will be employed in cleansing, draining, cleaning, disinfecting and removing trash, &c., for at least the next fifteen or twenty days. All persons are requested to have the trash, offal, refuse matter, &c., cleaned from their premises and placed upon the streets, whence they will be removed immediately. When it is convenient please use boxes or barrels.

Persons needing disinfectants can have the same free of charge by calling at my office.

The health officers, designated by a yellow rosette, may be notified of any stagnant water standing upon any lot, or damp cellar or anything that would impair the health of the city, and any complaint lodged at this office shall receive prompt attention.

Believing that a proper sanitary condition adopted now, at this early season, will insure a healthy summer I earnestly solicit the aid and co-operation of all the good citizens to accomplish this good end.

Respectfully, &c., GEO W. PRICE, JR.,
april 23—tf City Marshal.

THE YOUTH'S

COMPANION

A WEEKLY PAPER FOR

Young People

AND THE FAMILY.

THE COMPANION aims to be a favorite in every family—looked for eagerly by the young folks, and read with interest by the older. Its purpose is to interest while it amuses; to be judicious, practical, sensible: and to have really permanent worth, while it attracts for the hour.

It is handsomely illustrated, and has for contributors some of the most attractive writers in the country. Among these are:

Edward Eggleston. Dr. I. I. Hayes, Prof. Jas. DeMille, Louise C. Moulton, Louisa M. Alcott, "Sophie May," Rebecca H. Davis, C. A. Stephens, C. W. Flanders, Ruth Chesterfield, S. S. Robbins, M. A. Denison.

Its reading is adapted to the old and young, is very varied in its character: sprightly and entertaining. It gives

Stories of Adventure, Stories of Home and School Life,
Letters of Travel, Tales, Poetry.
Editorials upon current Topics, Selections for Declamation,
Historical Articles, Anecdotes, Puzzles,
Biographical Sketches, Facts and Incidents.
Religious Articles,

its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city.

Politically the POST is

UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the POST, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

Prospectus for 1874—Seventh year

THE ALDINE

An Illustrated Monthly journal, universally admitted to be Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or Music Stores

THE ALDINE while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of "steel plates," is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production. The woodcuts of THE ALDIFE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALEINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscribers to THE ALIENE will at a trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasure and refining influences of true art.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Thos. Moran and J. D. Woodward.

The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attraction any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West." One is a view in the White Mountins New Hampshire the other gives the Cliffs, of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves in a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size (12 x 16) and appearance exact fac-similes of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr Moran himself.

NEWARK, N.J., Sept 20th,
Messrs. JAMES SUTTON & Co.

Gentlemen,—I am delighted with proofs the color of your chromos. They wonderfully successful representation by mechanical process of the original paintings.

Very respectfully,
(Signed,) THOS. MORAN.

These chromos are in every sense American. They are by an original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. If no better because of all this they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and neither are they any the worse if by reason of peculiar facilites of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while equal in every respect to other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of THE ALDINE. Persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves—not for the price they did or did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders their distribution possible.

If any subscribers should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 14 x 20 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.

TERMS.

$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

For 50 Cents Extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsiblity to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the facsimile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

THE SUN.

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation, but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more are briefly as follows.

It is a first rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when a moment, and always presented in a clear intelligible, and interesting manner.

It is a first rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste

It is a first rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.

It is a first rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no color.—It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of knaves, and asks no favors from their supporters.

It reports the fashions for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the cattle markets, to which it pays particular attention.

Finally, it is the cheapest paper published. One dollar a year will secure it for any subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year.

We have no traveling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty six columns. Only $1 00 a year. No discounts from this rule.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.—Same size as the Daily Sun, $2 00 a year. A discount of 20 per cent. to clubs of 10 or over.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four page newspaper of twenty eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription price 50 cents a month, or $6 00 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent. Address,

THE NEW YORK TIMES.

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

THE NEW YORK DAILY TIMES IS THE

ONLY REPUBLICAN JOURNAL

IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK,

The high character which THE DAILY TIMES has borne in the past is a sufficient guarantee for its conduct in the future. It will continue to advocate the cause of the public, without reference to the interests of individuals. No expense will be spared in the maintenance of its position as the foremost of American journals. It is the best daily family newspaper in the country. It has the latest news, the best foreign correspondence, and the largest staff of home correspondents. All objectionable news and advertisements are rigidly excluded.

TERMS TO MAIL SUBSCRIBERS.

THE DAILY TIMES, per annum, including the Sunday Edition.....$12
THE DAILY TIMES, per annum, exclusive of the Sunday Edition.....$10
The Sunday Edition, per annum.....$ 2

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES contains a very careful epitome of our foreign and home correspondence; an interesting selection of current literature from the best foreign and domestic magazines; a choice variety of agricultural matter, and the very latest news up to the hour of going to press. TERMS—$3 per annum. Club rates—Two copies, one year, $5; Ten copies, one year, $25, and one extra copy free. New names may be added to clubs at any time during the year, at club rates.

THE WEEKLY TIMES.

THE WEEKLY TIMES is undoubtedly the best paper for the farmer, for the mechanic, and for all who live in localities which are served only by weekly mails. It contains, in addition to editorial comments on current topics, an excellent condensation of the news of the week; the most important events, both home and foreign, are reviewed at length, and a large quantity of matter is given especially interesting to the farmer and mechanic. Its market reports are the fullest and most accurate in the country. TERMS—$2 per annum.

Club rates of THE WEEKLY—all to one Post Office address—Five copies, per annum, $7 50; Ten copies, per annum, $12 50; Twenty copies, per annum, $22; Thirty copies, per annum, $30, and one extra copy to each club For every club of fifty, one copy of THE SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES to the getter-up of the club.

When the names of subscribers are required to be written upon each paper of the club at one Post Office address ten cents for each copy additional to the above rates.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY and WEEKLY mailed one year to clergymen at the lowest rates.

These prices are invariable. Remit in drafts on New-York or Post Office Money Orders, if possible, and where neither of these can be procured send the money in a registered letter.

Terms, cash in advance,

Prof. Max Muller, Prof. Tyndall, Prof Huxley, Lord Lytton, Fritz Reuter, Mrs Oliphant, Dr W. B. Carpenter, C, Kingsley, Erckmann Chatrain, Ivan Turgenieff, Matthew Arnold, W. E. H. Lecky, Miss Thackeray, Miss Muloch, Prof. Richard A. Proctor, Katharine C Macquoid, Jean Ingelow, Geo. MacDonald. Froude, and Gladstone, are some of the eminent authors lately represented in the pages of

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

A weekly magazine of sixty-four pages, THE LIVING AGE gives more than THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND double-column octavo pages of reading-matter yearly, forming four large volumes. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Tales, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.

A NEW SERIES

Was begun Jan. 1, 1873, with entirely new Tales, already embracing Serial and Short Stories by distinguished English, French, German, and Russian authors; viz., Lord Lytton (Bulwer,) Erckmann-Chatrian, Ivan Turgenieff, Miss Thackeray, Mrs. Oliphant, Fritz Reuter, Mrs Parr (author of "Dorothy Fox") Julia Kavanagh, &c.

During the coming year, as heretofore, the choicest serial and short stories by the Leading Foreign Authors will be given, together will an amount unapproached by any other periodical in the world, of the best literary and scientific matter of the day, from the pens of the above-named and other foremost Essayists Scientists, Critics, Discoverers, and Editors, representing every department of knowledge and progress.

The importance of THE LIVING AGE to every American reader, as the only complete as well as fresh compilation of a generally inaccessible but indispensable current literature,—indispensable because it embraces the productions of THE ABLEST LIVING WRITERS in all branches of Literature, Science, Art, and Politics,—is sufficiently indicated by the following

OPINIONS.

"Reproduces the best thoughts of the best minds of the civilized world, upon all topics of living interest."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"In no other single publication can there be found so much of sterling literary excellence,"—The Nation, New York.

"And the cheapest. A monthly that comes every week."—THE ADVANCE, CHICAGO.

"The ablest essays, the most entertaining stories, the finest poetry of the English language, are here gathered together."—Illinois State Journal.

"With it alone a reader may fairly keep up with all that is important in the literature, history, politics, and science of the day."—The Methodist, New York.

"In view of all the competitors in the field, I should certainly chose "The Living Age"—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.

"The best periodical in America."—Rev. Dr. Cuyler.

"Has no equal in any country."—Phila. Press.

"Indispensable to every one who desires a thorough compendium of all that is admirable and noteworthy in the literary world."—Boston Post.

THE LIVING AGE is sent a year(52 numbers,) postpaid, on receipt of $8; or six copies for $40, ☞ EXTRA OFFERS FOR 1874.

To new subscribers, now remitting $8 for the year 1874, the last six numbers of 1873 will be sent gratis; or to those wishing to begin with the New Series, the numbers of 1873 and 1874 (104 numbers), will be sent for $13; or, to those preferring, the publishers make the following

Club prices for the best home and Foreign Literature.

("Possessed of THE LIVING AGE and one or other of our vivacious American monthlies, a subscriber will find himself in command of the wholesituation.") Phila. Bulletin.

For $10, any one of the American $4 Monthlies (or Harper's Bazar, or Appleton's Journal, weekly) is sent with THE LIVING AGE for a year; or, for $9, THE LIVING AGE and Scribner's St Nicholas; or, for $8.50, THE LIVING AGE and Our Young Folks.
